Just half a block from the waterfront and right in the heart of the Beaufort Historic District, the Pecan Tree Inn has a well-founded reputation as the place to stay when visiting the North Carolina coast.

The fully air-conditioned house has seven elegant guest rooms, each with a distinctive character. Two deluxe suites with king-size canopied beds and separate two-person Jacuzzis® are popular with honeymooners and anyone in need of a little pampering. All rooms are handsomely decorated with antiques and have full private baths and cable television. For those traveling with laptops, high-speed Internet access is available on our wireless network. Complimentary daily newspapers and bicycles are available.

Relax on one of our three porches or stroll through the expansive flower and herb garden. The Pecan Tree is a restful home base for visitors to this undiscovered gem of an 18th century town.
